

Eagerly Watch and Pray

The Eagerly Watch and Pray series helps you prepare for each parenting day with prayer and eagerly watch to see what God is doing in your family.

“God, give me patience...and I need it NOW!” The majority of parental prayers are probably these SOS requests. God is faithful to answer these prayers, but He can do so much more with us when we build a prayer-life foundation under our parenting.

Many people haven't had a model to follow in their prayer life. Even growing up in a Christian home, the prayer times may have been private. Millie McNabb teaches you not only how to have a meaningful prayer life yourself, but also how to lead and train your children in prayer.

The Bible says, “...I will order my prayer to Thee and eagerly watch” (Psalm 5:3.) Most Christian parents do pray, but in the press of life, prayer time may become haphazard. Millie shows you the basics to order your prayer life in the midst of parenting. You will learn:

- To build a prayer foundation for your parenting
- To order your prayer, even in snippets of time
- To eagerly watch for God's response
- To teach your children to order their prayers

The Eagerly Watch and Pray Seminar Series is available as a weekend seminar, teleseminars or as separate 90-minute breakout sessions:

- The “Holey” Time: You will develop a relationship with God as you pray without ceasing.
- Sound Foundation: You can be secure in God's presence.
- Soul Searching: You can have relief from guilt.
- The Three R's: You can train your child's heart with assurance.
- An Attitude of Gratitude: You can rely on God even if He has a different answer than you wanted.
